

Tweaker, Sleepwalking Away places where i like to hide rooms that i built in my mind have trapped me from my dreams at night tears that drip from my eyes help soak this silky disguise pull back my mask and watch me die

sleep walking away
take my hand, follow me
a killer lurks inside tossing and turning i fight my stomache can't hold whats inside the promise of sleep i can't find a sleepwalkers murderous plight to kill the demons at night has left me with no place to hide

take my hand
hold my heart
kiss my scar
hold me tight

wake up
wake up
wake up
for the killer lurks inside
wake up
wake up
wake up
wake up
save me from my murderous plight
