

TWENTY ONE PILOTS, Lavish

[Intro]

Welcome to the new way of livin'
It's just the beginning of lavish

[Chorus]

Welcome to the new way of livin'
It's just the beginning of lavish
From the floor to the ceiling
Welcome to the style you haven't seen in a while
It's lavish

[Verse 1]

You try your best to look like this is not your first time
You're fightin' for the front row, that's a nice try
You're looking real nice, smellin' like worth
Walk in like you deserve it
And if your feet are hurtin', then that's when you know
You brought the right equipment to put on a show
And let it flow, let it show, shine
Let it show, let it flow, shine

[Chorus]

Welcome to the new way of livin'
It's just the beginning of lavish
From the floor to the ceiling
Welcome to the style you haven't seen in a while
It's lavish
It's lavish
It's lavish
(Welcome to the style you haven't seen in a while)
(It's lavish)

[Verse 2]

Got that penny loafer squeak, across linoleum
Big flex, complex, Napoleon
I say whatever and whatever that I want
Sip a Capri-Sun like it's Dom Pérignon
I'm talkin' tough happily with someone in front of me
Room on the payroll, everyone can live comfortably
I'm comin' in hot, hot shot hypocrisy
NDAs for the folks that talk to me
So tell your friends at follow bots anonymous
Keep it cool, keep the mood androgynous
I see your problem is your proctologist
Got both hands on your shoulder while you're bottomless

[Chorus]

It's lavish
It's lavish
Welcome to the style you haven't seen in a while
It's lavish

[Outro]

(Welcome to the style you haven't seen in a while)
(It's lavish) It's lavish
