

Twice Born, Spirit To Fill

You've become absent from my soul
I'm here just to rot away
I need to see Your face again
I long for Your warm embrace
You feel so far away
It's like I've never even known, like we've never even touched
What have I done to us?
I wish I were in the shadow of Your hands once more.

I want to be sanctified in Your eyes, justified.
I want to be purified in Your eyes, sanctified.

I'm lifeless, I'm empty, without Your Spirit to fill
I'm lost, lost purpose, Godm show Yourself.
