

Twice Born, Stop The Hate

I can't stand this hate, everybody cutting down one another
Just because we're not the same race
Doesn't mean we have to hate each other.

This oppresion is driving me insane
(Whoa, oh, oh) In your fight, there's nothing to gain
Why can't we all just get along?
You were raised to believe this way
(Whoa, oh, oh) That doesn't make it okay
Why can't we all just get along?

Stop the hate!

We all have a heart to break
If we can just understand one another
From the same God we're all made
We're all people, we're all worth the same.

Stop the hate!
