Twila Paris, I Am Not Afraid Any More

I said I belonged to you
But in a secret room
I kept a secret list
I siad anything for you
Anything but this
Anything but this
You knew it all along
You knew it very well

You knew the sturdy walls I hid behind were nothing but a prison cell

(chorus)

I am not afriad any more
You have oppened all the windows
Opened all the doors
I am not afaid any more
I fell the wind of freedom like I never did before
But I have spent the hours dancing on the floor
I am not afraid any more

You have always been the same
I ran away from you
I ran away from you
Every time you called my name
I tried to hide the truth
I tried to hide the truth
You knew it all along
You knew it very well
You knew the more I covered up my heart
The more I didn't know myself

(chorus)

No room for fear No room No room for fear perfect love is living hear

(chorus) (fade out)
