

Twila Paris, I Want The World To Know

You are bread where there is hunger
In the desert You are thunder
You are all we need, all we need
You are peace where men would riot
In the turmoil there is quiet
You are all we need, all we need

I want the world to know
There is one shining hope
I want the world to know You

To the broken You bring healing
To the heart of stone revealing
You are all we need, all we need
You are friendship to the lonely
The forever one and only
You are all we need, all we need

I want the world to know
The story must be told
I want the world to know the Truth
I want the world to know
There is one shining hope
I want the world to know You

You are love where there is hatred
You are life and You are sacred
You are all we need, all we need

I want the world to know
The story must be told
I want the world to know the Truth
I want the world to know
There is one shining hope
I want the world to know You
