

Twilightning, Not A Word

Way too restless, in suspense
When the voices begin
All the whispers in silence
He just took it on a chin
Defense turned to violence
Laying face down on a sand
Those whispers in silence
He couldn't understand; not a word

Mmm, not a word

From the hidden moaning to a hopeless whipping screams
Face down on a shoreline, it was not like how it seemed

With all the passion drowning, leaving nothing but a doubt
Soon you buried six feet under, there's nothing to talk about
...not a word

Not a word

Clench your fist, close your eyes be mesmerized
Hit me hard, do not miss (before the last one)
I'll just keep my mouth shut till the last cut
Hit me hard, do not miss (before the last kiss)

There is no one left to blame
Everything you say just makes me shiver
Make me shiver

Abandoned drifter, now naked to the bone
Dreams feeling like the enemy
The king gave away his throne
That's not the way he chose it
That's not the way he planned
Still shouting in the dark
He just couldn't understand
... not a word

Clench your fist, close your eyes be mesmerized
Hit me hard, do not miss (before the last one)
I'll just keep my mouth shut till the last cut
Hit me hard, do not miss (before the last kiss)

There is no one left to blame
Everything you say just makes me shiver

Oooh, makes me shiver
You make me shiver
