

Twin-A, Miracle

You you are a miracle
And I, I oughta know
I, I am a spectacle
When you come to the shows

Say what you mean
Mean what you say
Take what you want
Want what you take
I was told you are ready, willing, able

I'm gonna beg and I'm gonna push
I'm gonna nag you
You're gonna run away
Lay you down upon the table
Do it all to you

Hey, haven't I seen that face
Somewhere, some kind of spell
I swear, that I have seen that face
And I know your body well

Say what you mean and
Mean what you say
Take what you want
Want what you take
I was told you are ready, willing, able

I'm gonna beg and I'm gonna push
I'm gonna nag you
You're gonna run away
Lay you down upon the table

Take off you clothes
Where nobody knows
Oh the things I'll do to you

Say what you mean
Mean what you say
Take what you want
Want what you take
I was told you were ready, willing, able

I'm gonna beg and I'm gonna push
I'm gonna nag you
You're gonna run away
Lay you down upon the table
Do it all for you
Do it all for you
Do it all for you
Do it all for you
