

Two Friends, Mona Lisa Eyes

You've blurred my vision
Can you take the keys and drive
Both drunk and daydreams
Let's just speed through all these signs

Can we be alone?
Turn the music low
Let the bullshit go
You can be so cold
Heaven only knows why I try

You give me Mona Lisa's eyes
Cuz I can't take my love for you
Everytime you start a fire
I can't help but lose my cool
If you tell me that you're mine
There;s nothing O won't do
So won't you come with me tonight
I wanna show you how you make me feel

Burn all your bridges
Girl you'll still have mine
With that hand you're fold
Burt I've been bleeding mine

Can we be alone?
Turn the music low
Let the bullshit go
You can be so cold
Heaven only knows why I try
