

Ty England, Forever

You never know 'till it happens to you
What really needing someone can do
You're never sure
'Till it takes you by storm
When a dream slips from your mind
And into your arms

This feeling's so strong
I just can't go wrong
You ask me how long
Will I love you
Forever and ever
Forever

Sometimes it's hard to believe what you feel

Imagination is so warm and real
But time can't lie
And it can not be seen
The more that I hold you
The more I believe

This feeling's so strong
I just can't go wrong
You ask me how long
Will I love you
Forever and ever
Forever
