

Ty Herndon, If The Road Runs Out

I won't stand in your way, I understand
When it calls your name, you've gotta chase that restless wind
I won't break down or let you see my tears
Cause baby I know what you're looking for just ain't here

But if the road runs out and those dreams run dry
And that big old world gets to spinning too fast
Don't think twice
I'll be right here, still loving you
And don't you ever think that you can't turn around
If the road runs out

I can't say goodbye, the words won't come
I want to get on my knees and beg you please but I'm bitin my tongue
I can wish you luck and I can say a prayer
That your skies are blue when you spread your wings and fly out there

If the road runs out and those dreams run dry
And that big old world gets to spinning too fast
Don't think twice
I'll be right here, still loving you don't you ever think that you can't turn around
If the road runs out

If the road runs out baby

Baby spread your wings

If the road runs out and your those dreams run dry
And that big old world gets to spinning too fast
Don't think twice
Cause I'll be right here, still loving you
Don't you ever think you can't turn around

Don't you ever think you can't turn around

If the road runs out

If the road runs out baby

You can come back home

You've got to fly

Baby spread your wings

Baby spread your wings

And fly
