

Ty Herndon, Just Enough To Get To Memphis

I met a man with tattoos on his hands

He said "mate can you spare 20 dollars"
I said "what you gonna do with that?
Buy you a bottle of rotten good wine wake up in some door way, out of your mind" He said "I dont blame you what you're thinking but a man's gotta draw the line";

CHORUS

Just give me enough to get to Memphis
I swear Ill be alright I've had some bad and I've has some good But I'm clean out of love tonight
When I cross that old mississippi coz heavens waitin on the other side
If I can get enough to get to Memphis Ill be home by the morning light

I'm a fool I'm told, but he touched my soul with his worn out shoes and _____ that 20 dollars was just pocked change to me but it could change his world so fast he mumbled something about Vietnam sucked in his pride and stuck out his hand i wanted so much to believe him Lord I gave him every cent I had

CHORUS

I got to thinking as he walked away that i was just another fool must have been at least 100 dollars I gave him for his phoney thoughts when suddenly he turned around in his tracks counted the ___ from an old paper sack he probably said "thank you son, this is all I need";
as he handed me all but the 20 back

Chorus

If I can get enough to get to memphis, it'll be a one way ride
