

Tyler James, Worry About You (ft. Kano)

(Rap)

I worry about you babe
When your phone's not on
I come by and you're not home
Worry about you baby,
I worry about you
Worry about you babe
When it's late at night
You come back and looking fresh from a fight
Worry about you baby
I worry about you

I ain't sleeping at night
And I ain't eating quite right
I just worry about you

Tell me what I'm supposed to say
'Bout you throw your love away
Worry about you baby,
I worry about you
Tell me what I'm supposed to do
Expect me to go down with you
Worry about you baby,
I worry about you

Worry about you baby,
When you're right you're wrong
Rollercoaster to go
Worry about you baby,
Worry about you baby,

Worry about you babe
'Cause the world you're in
I solely say we fit in
I worry about you baby
I worry about you

'Cause we ain't sleeping at night
We ain't eating quite right
I just worry about you

Tell me what I'm supposed to say
'Bout you throw your love away
Worry about you baby,
I worry about you
Tell me what I'm supposed to do
Expect me to go down with you
Worry about you baby,
I worry about you

I ain't sleeping at night
And I ain't eating quite right
I just worry about you

Tell me what I'm supposed to say
Worry about you baby,
I worry about you
Tell me what I'm supposed to do
Expect me to go down with you
Worry about you baby,
I worry about you
