

Tyler, When It Happens

It could be the way he smiles. The twinkle in his eyes. Look how he walks. Smiles as he talks...but do

He'd look at you-all innocently. With his pleading eyes- Would He know?

(bridge)

Smallest of words, set you up. It's taken control of your heart.

Let it breathe

(chorus)

You'll know when, you walk miles (just to be together)

You'll know when, he holds you (just to have you near)

You'll know...

When it happens

Just coz he said, doesn't mean he meant it. Just take some time to consider.

Keep in mind, you might end up bitter.

He couldn't possibly have known.

(Bridge+Chorus)

Why give my all to some one who could care less?

It's happened so many times it's become a habit.

I could give my heart to any, I'll know who

When it happens

I'll know you, when it happens...
