

Tynisha Keli, I Told Ya

(Verse 1:)

You already know
I gave you everthing that I have Now I gotta go
Cuz you took me for granted yea
I've done this before
Im not walkin back through that door
And this is what i deserve
But I aint playin these games no more

(Chorus:)

I've been tryin to find a way to trust you
I know in my heart im better off without you
I cant lie to myself I know its over
knew that you would break my heart plz boy I told ya
But I think the most is all the second chances runnin back to you like you was gonna to change but I cant lie to myself i know its ova
Knew that you would break my heart plz boy i told ya

(Verse 2:)

Feel like im goin insane
Im conflicted with the way I feel Somethin like love and hate
But I probably want you still
But in our history
Too many bad memories
Ive done my share of things to hurt you
Theres no easy way
To say the end of the road is today!

(Chorus:)

I've been tryin to find a way to trust you
I know in my heart im better off without you
I cant lie to myself I know its over
knew that you would break my heart plz boy I told ya
But I think the most is all the second chances
runnin back to you like you was gonna to change but
I cant lie to myself i know its ova
Knew that you would break my heart plz boy i told ya

(Bridge:)

I know its hard to let it go
But I cant hold on to this no more
And Im through wit yo love its just not enough
You said you'de be checkin but boy u wouldnt care

(Chorus: x2)

I've been tryin to find a way to trust you
I know in my heart im better off without you
I cant lie to myself I know its over
knew that you would break my heart plz boy I told ya
But I think the most is all the second chances
runnin back to you like you was gonna to change but
I cant lie to myself i know its ova
Knew that you would break my heart plz boy i told ya
