

Tynsky, Baby You're the One I Need

I'm being distracted by You
I'm feeling little fooled by You
I'm seeing all the things I want to see
I really tried not to be so mean

I'm being so fine with You
But do I feel same as You
I used to fade away things of off me
I'm seeing all the things I want to see

So there's no thing that could make me upset
I know that I wasn't really prepared Cause all I truly wanted was to be loved by You

Im getting little lost like I did take it
I'm feeling out off place because I've made it
I'm begin for a while so please
Cause baby You're the one I need

Im getting little lost like I did take it
I'm feeling out off place because I've made it
I feel like begging on my knees
Cause baby You're the one I need

I'm being too late for You
I haven't put blame on You
I even tried to pray to let it be
I feel like I've been lost in deepest see

I'm feeling I'm lost in You
For now I gotta bear it too
I'm tryna whip away it of off me
But do I really need to make it clear

Cause all I truly wanted was to be loved by You

Im getting little lost like I did take it
I'm feeling out off place because I've made it
I'm begin for a while so please
Cause baby You're the one I need

Im getting little lost like I did take it
I'm feeling out off place because I've made it
I feel like begging on my knees
Cause baby You're the one I need
