

Typecast, Lastime

She said its over
And i don't stand a chance
She said it honestly
I wished that she lied
Her words said it all
Minus me
Minus the actions
And the understanding
She will never do
I never take advantage
And i don't have the guts

She dropped me out
And shes leaving me

Its the last time
Did i pushed too hard
I didn't mean to make me cry
But thats okay who's wrong
And understanding
You'll never understand
What you think and what i feel
