

Typecast, Phoenix

i'll rise above the clouds your voice kept me alive i'll spread my wings and fly i've returned for you again my love i've kept all that i've gained your smile and how your eyes shine am i strong enough to be with you again? if im not, i'll stretch my arms to hold you. ... im ready hold me tight once more and slowly
we'll pick up the pieces we lost the battles i fought unruly but won gloriously im your lord knight, i've gained so much but still i need you here
