

Typecast, What You Are

What You Are
Typecast

Wake me up from this dream
This is not happening
I can't run to you
I can't feel life
I'm standing on top of the cliff
And i'm ready to jump, ready to fall once more
I can't change what you are
So i'm ready to jump, ready to fall once more
I hope that somewhere there in your heart
Screams my name out loud wanting to come out
Wanting to jump with me
So fly me out of this place
We don't have to be here anyway
Let's go somewhere where nobody knows
I'm standing on top of the cliff
And i'm ready to jump, ready to fall once more
But i can't change what you are
So i'm ready to jump, ready to fall once more
