

Typecast, Will You Ever Learn

So whats the point in all of this?
When you will never change
The days have past
The weathers changed
Should I be sorry? Could I be sorry?
I did it all for you
Hoping you would see
Your eyes are dull, your hands are clenched
Are we ready?
But you think about yourself
Only but yourself
But what about
Un-lonely nights, romantic moments
The love
What about them
Throw it all away

You know me well
You know its wrong
Then what is it you feel?
You hide behind those perfect smiles
It wont fool me because you already did
But you think about yourself
Only but yourself
But what about
Un-lonely nights, romantic moments
The love
What about them
Throw it all away
The perfect dates, the sweetest kisses
What about them
Throw it all away
