Tyr, Dragons Never Die

Long ago and far away a lindwyrm lay upon his hoard No spear or sword could scratch a scale Some gilded tale drew lads and lords Enticed towards enormous hoards high on gold

And I too would want to try The lindwyrm I will defy But one look into his eye I knew, dragons never die

Whoever said and they lived happily forever after lied For tale and time go on no matter if I fail or find the Unimaginable hoard high on gold

And I too would want to try The lindwyrm I will defy But one look into his eye I knew, dragons never die

I knew, dragons never die The lindwyrm I will defy But one look into his eye I knew, dragons never die

My own shadow soul will fly I take to the stormy sky

Dragons never die
