

Tyrant Tea Club, Anything

Nows the time to start all over, nows the time to make it new youre the one who did me over, youre the one who wasnt true gonna shout it out to you gonna make it shine so bright wanna make it clear to you

Would do anything, anything...

Gonna shout it out to you
wanna make it clear to you

I would swim the oceans, take away the clouds sit in silence, cry out loud I would be your beggar, be your king, I would do anything

Its a way I bring to you now, its a way well have to go otherwise we wont get through babe, otherwise its just a show

Gonna shout it out to you

Would do anything, anything...
