

Tyrant Tea Club, Gone Today

Feeling trapped in what I call my home Waiting anxiously for things to come What exactly am I waiting for?
Hangin' out is wasting time for free Seems there's nothing that could make you see What exactly are you working for?

Gone I think I'm gone today
Wrong or is it right to say that I just waste my time
I think I'm gone today

There's a million chances right in front of you, you just gotta try a million ways, but you're just standing by, what exactly are you waiting for?

Gone I think I'm gone today
Wrong or is it right to say
that I just waste my time
I think I'm gone today
