

Tyrone Wells, Falling

I hear your voice from down below
The sweetest sound I've ever known
You call me closer to the edge
To take a step and just let it go

I know I want you
That's why I'm afraid
Can you feel me falling for you
Feel me falling
Cause I fear I'm falling for you
Fear I'm falling

I won't pretend that you're naive
It's hard to hide what's plain to see
But I will try to stand my ground
And catch the breath you take from me

I know I want you
That's why I'm afraid
Can you feel me falling for you

Feel me falling
Cause I fear I'm falling for you
Fear I'm falling..falling..falling..falling

Can you feel me falling for you
Feel me falling
And I wanna feel you falling for me
Feel you falling...

Don't be the one that got away
You can't just go, my heart will break
I have to show you how I really feel
You are the reason I believe
That love is a possibility
You are the dream I never thought was real

Can you feel my falling for you
Feel me falling
And I wanna feel you falling for me
Feel you falling..falling..falling..falling..
