

U.D.O., Fight For The Right

Another morning
The sun is barely up
Sudden roaring everywhere
It's getting closer
Panic shows its head
Hell breaks loose once again

No one saw it coming
As evil showed his face
Fear spreads like the darkness
Who knows what the future will bring?

Fight – Fight for the right
Believe in the good cause and good will always win
Fight – Fight for the right
Believe in the good cause and good will always win

The news was tragic
Gunfire everywhere
Bombs and missiles raining down
Innocence dying
Armies filled with pride
A sad disgusting mess
