

U2, A.R Rahman, Ahimsa

I'll meet you where the sky us torn I'll meet you in the air I'll meet you before the world was born and we had not a care

this is an invitation
to a high location
for someone who wants to belong
this is a mediation
on your radio station
if you like it
you can sing along

I'll meet you where there is no weeping your tears are not a stream I'll meet you where there is no sleeping where we wake up to dream

this is a mediation
