

Uada, Crepuscule Natura

Alone in the dark, where I stare at the stars communicating deeply from an open heart The scattered pieces never laid afar for all the answers begin when you decide to start

Thinketh within thy soul for you shall be and be it thy existence for you shall reap Directly ask and you shall receive simply try but first you must believe

What's been forebode has all been told by Twilight nature
Knowledge and wealth; law unto self: it is Twilight nature
Out of the storm conquerors are born from Twilight nature
Mentally see what you wish to be within

Twilight nature
