

Ultimate Fakebook, This Will Be Laughing Week

Step up to the stage, kids - and don't retreat from this Carnival of Volume I know that you're red-eyed and bloodshot-beat ya just can't lick that all day frown
And now you're rollercoaster sick and drinkin' lemonade Well, listen up!

On Sunday the tears were fallin'
and trickling down your cheeks,
But yesterday's cares are no big deal
Cause this will be laughing week
This will be laughing week
This will be laughing

They won't let us in now cause we're all freaks
So grab your magic cartoon costumes
And then clap your hands and just stomp your feet and let this medicine buzz on and on Like carousels in stereo, and don't jump off no, don't jump off

On Sunday the tears were fallin'
and trickling down our cheeks
But yesterday's cares are no big deal
Cause this will be laughing week
This will be laughing week
This will be laughing week
and this will be laughing week
