

Ultra Orange, Lines On My Hand

Is it written with your blood or is it just a lipstick note one morning when i woke-up painted on the bathroom door
the lines of my hand
you just read me like a book
the lines of my hand
there was a strange look into your eyes using make-up for your break-up the traces of the kiss goodbye making love on the rock wake-up the puff and nothing
the lines of my hand
you just read me like a book
the lines of my hand
thanx for the ride
i'm on my way
and don't be so sad
the lines of my hand
you just read me like a book
the lines of my hand
using make-up
for your breake-up
the traces of the kiss goodbye
