

Ultra Orange, Simple Words

What am I supposed to do when we're side by side and the silence speaks for two
is it me or is it you?
oh tonight we need to start something new simple words like 'I love you' it feels so hard to tell the truth and you look away
too afraid to hear
what you're about to say how far can you go
how long can you wait
before you speak
from your heart and the case keeps on and on and the mystery is never solved if I'm not the one you search if you're stuck inside a dead end world simple words like 'I love you'
it feels so hard to tell the truth
how far can you go
