

Ultra, Rescue Me

Ah yeah. Come on. Come on.

* Say it once, say it twice Just say it anyway you like it
Just say it tonight 'cos you know that Tomorrow's gonna be too late
Yeah Yeah Yeah Take my life, take my heart
Just take it anyway you like it Just say it tonight
'cos you know that Tomorrow's gonna be too late
It's gonna be too late Yeah Yeah Yeah
If I could fly, up to the sky I'd bring back the sunshine for you
If I could rise to paradise I'd take you with me too
A little sign to say you're mine A reason for living baby Without it I am gonna find That I need somebody, I need somebody new
 If you could only find the strength inside to say You show me heaven baby Would put the wrong to right, would start a new day Everything would be alright
I miss you, I love you Just say if you think you do repeat (*)
I spent some time, confused and blind Just thinking about you lately
And now it's clear, I shed a tear I need your point of view
You gotta try to symbolise Your heart and just how you're feeling
To say the words, it doesn't hurt I say them all to you repeat ()
repeat (*)
So you want to say it once You've got to say it twice, yeah
Do you want to tell me You've gotta tell me Say it, say it, say it
repeat (*)
Say it once, say it twice Just say it anyway you like it
Just say it tonight 'cos you know that Tomorrow's gonna be too late
Yeah Yeah Yeah Take my life, take my heart
Just take it anyway you like it Just say it tonight
'cos you know that Tomorrow's gonna be too late
It's gonna be too late Yeah Yeah Yeah
It's gonna be too late
