

Ultra, Say It Once

Oh yeah,
Come on, come on, come on...
Chorus :-
Say it once, say it twice
Just say it anyway you like it,
Just say it tonight,
Coz you know that tomorrow's gonna be too late,
Yeah, yeah, yeah...
Take my life, take my heart,
Just take it anyway you like it,
Just say it tonight,
Coz you know that tomorrow's gonna be too late,
It's gonna be too late...
If I could fly up to the sky,
I'd bring back the sunshine for you,
If I could rise to paradise,
I'd take you with me too,
A little sign to say, you're mine,
A reason for living, baby,
Without it I'm gonna find,
That I need somebody,
I need somebody new...
If you could only find the strength inside to say,
You show me heaven baby,
Would put the wrong to right, would start a new day,
Everything would be all right,
I miss you, I love you,
Just say if you think you do...
Repeat Chorus
I spent some time confused and blind,
Just thinking about you lately,
And now it's clear, I shed a tear,
I need your point of view,
You gotta try, and symbolise,
Your heart and just how you are feeling,
To say the words it doesn't hurt,
I'll say them all to you...
If you could only find the strength inside to say,
You show me heaven baby,
Would put the wrong to right, would start a new day,
Everything would be all right,
I love you... Just say if you think you do...
Repeat Chorus
So you want to say it once,
You've got to say it twice, yeah,
Do you want to tell me?
You've got to tell me
Say it, say it, say it
Repeat Chorus til end
