

Ultravox, Brilliant

Somewhere sure
Somewhere safe inside
A world where you reside
Where chance and trust have died
A world where you can
Hide away, hide away
No tomorrow, no today

You, the brilliant thing you are
Outshine your brightest star
Too distant and too far away
You, you legend deep inside
Religiously denied tonight

Step out from the? mask you stand behind
Fearful lust can blind
Time to take the time
The pressure's on you
Hide away, hide away
No tomorrow, just today

You, the brilliant thing you are
Outshine your brightest star
Too distant and too far away
You, you legend deep inside
Religiously denied tonight
