

Ulver, Plate 14

The ancient tradition that the world will be consumed in fire at the end of six thousand years is true.

For the cherub with his flaming sword is hereby commanded to leave his guard at tree of life, and v

This will come to pass by an improvement of sensual enjoyment.

But first the notion that man has a body distinct from his soul, is to be expunged: this I shall do, by

If the doors of perception were cleansed every thing would appear to man as it is, infinite.

For man has closed himself up, till he sees all things thro' narrow chinks of his cavern.
