

Umfrey's McGee, Mulch's Odyssey

i fell out of bed to a sudden calling wipe off the glaze on your eyes i feed my cat 'cause i heard him meowin awake from the dead, yeah get me some coffee, pancakes and bacon 'cause my stomach's all (red ?) yesterday, downtown blues tomorrow well something went wrong in my head i couldn't see that you and me we couldn't get our shit together i don't believe the future needs another end to the forever i missed the boat on what she was saying procrastination gets too far i'm gone and away for days and days too busy at the bar to where (love has passed?) where love's lost and last ripped up pictures on my lawn well dust to dust the fire and lust comes crawlin down like rain
