

Unbekannt, Where?

Now i wonder where is happiness
Where are all the children we have saved
Where are all the hearts which have loved
Where is the peace
All the eyes on us
We've been somebody important to the world
Now we've been forgotten
I can't give up
Coz i still believe in all those people they have something inside
Know it won't lose it
I know they are better
And we helped them
I'm repeatin a question myself
Why it has changed
Where are you?
Where are we?
Where are all the hearts we have saved?
Lets try to find them
To make them safe
Where are you?
Our heroism has burnt down
They've had new heroes now
Despite this i know they have just been stray
Forgotten just like us
Lets pray for them
We were born for this
This is our destiny
We can't give up
Coz we know that all those people have something inside
Know it can't lose it
We know they are better
And we helped them
And I'm tellin myself
It will be changed
Where are you?
Where are we?
Where are all the hearts we have saved?
Lets try to find them
To make them safe
Where are you?
We are lost
Lets find the way to go outside
It's up to us what happens the whole world
So come on
Lets do it together like we did
We won't let you go any more
So where are you?
Where are your hearts?
Where are you?
Where are we?
Where are all the hearts we have saved?
Lets try to find them
To make them safe
Where are you?
