

Unbelievable Truth, Almost Here

When I was alone,
I felt so cold,
its hard to keep from shaking.

I found someone and I couldnt move.
I couldnt breathe.

And you try to tell me
that were almost here.
That weve almost made it.

How can I be somebody new,
When I see my own reflection?

And you try to tell me
that weve almost made it.
That were almost here.

How can I be somebody new,
when I see my own reflection?
