

Unbelievable Truth, Covers

I've been kicking back Somehow I've been finding distractions everywhere In the end there's so much so much else I feel that I must devour
I wrote a song, a melody
Don't pull the covers over me
Maybe I wake up and feel off-kilter On the wrong path to some dead end but that isn't all I protest my right to make my own mistakes
I wrote a song a melody
Don't pull the covers over me
I wrote a song, a melody
Don't pull the covers over me
I wrote a song to take or leave what more do you want from me?
it even fed a need in me
Don't pull the covers over me
