

Unbelievable Truth, Finest Little Space

Sooner or later
you take off your skin and go to sleep.
You pray its forever.
If hes still out there, hell come home.

Too much,
for all they care.
Seen too much,
for all they care.
Been around,
and seen whats there.
And you cant bring it back anymore.

If it gets better,
is there a chance that youll come back?
Or if its forever,
is there a choice for us to make?

Too much,
for all they care.
Seen too much,
for all they care.
Been around,
and seen whats there.
And you cant bring it back anymore.

Youre inside
the finest little space.
And the slightest sound just Makes you want to close your eyes
and hold your breath.

Seen too much,
for all they care.
Been around,
and seen whats there.
And you cant bring it back anymore.
Seen too much,
for all they care.
And been around,
and seen whats there
seen to much,
for all they care.
And been around,
and seen whats there....
