

Unbelievable Truth, Home Again

Daylight filters through and I am restless again My mind is on fast forward through a hundred different plans but I lie still remembering I'm Home again
I told myself that it was over, never again Motion is seductive and how can I resist?
Feeling reborn
when I return Home again
I'm out of synch
and at these times I feel most alive
But in the end
we're reabsorbed
Home again
(I'm never going out again all I have is here)
