

Unbelievable Truth, I Can't Wait

Berenice
Those insect-eggs
are hatching out
and I think I'm going deaf.
in one ear and my balance is shot so you can guess
my dreams are filled with brain-eating worms but it's only when I wake I really feel
the horror
and I can't wait
to have you near again
And talk about the things that we both went through
I admit
to fantasies
of wrist-slashing
But it doesn't make me proud Glamorous
or any such thing (...I can't wait....)
Sometimes I think I want to go Back again
to the place where we were left Coz ever since
Nothing can come close
And I can't wait
and relive the things that we both went through
