

UnchainD, The Line

music by Vincent Bocchini lyrics by Vincent Bocchini

I wanna try and tell you but I dont know how to put it into words

It's better to show you what i've learned so you'll understand my concern

It's the reason some turn away dont want to hear what you say

They see how you live it makes them wonder what you give

(CHORUS)

Are you out of line are you walking the line

Are you giving a line can you see the line

See you lifting your hands to Him walking out living in sin

You see the Son shining bright but you still veer from the light

(CHORUS)

Your confusing the ones that dont know they're seeing what you show

Just take the time to understand the mark your leaving with them

Their blood will be on your hands

(CHORUS)

Are you forming a line
