

Uncle Bob, Swans

By my side
You'll never be
By my side
You'll never be
'Cause I'm fake at the seams
I'm lost in my dreams and
And I want you to know
That I can't let you go
And you're never coming home again
And you're never coming home again
By my side
You'll never be
By my side
you'll never be (x2)
I wanted to tell you I changed
I wanted to tell you that things would be different this time
I see you, you see me
Differently
I see you, you see me
Differently
You tell me that you love me but you never want to see me again. (x4)
