

Undead, Elected (Alice Cooper)

Top rank cut of meat, I'm your choice
I want to be elected
A yankee doodle dandy in a gold rolls royce
I want to be elected
Kids want a savior, they don't need a fake
I want to be elected
We're all gonna rock to the rules that I make
I want to be elected
Elected, elected, elected, woah
I want to be elected for the United States Of America
"Wait here Mr. and Mrs. America, I want you to see the candidate who will take the country by storm."
I never lied to you, I've always been cool
I want to be elected
I taught you how to vote, and I told you 'bout school
I want to be elected
Elected, elected, hallelujah, woah
I want to be elected for the United States Of America
We're gonna win this one, take the country by storm
We're gonna be elected
You and me together young and strong
We're gonna be elected
Elected, elected
Respected, selected, call-collected
I want to be elected
If I'm elected I'm gonna support a new party
A third party, a world party
So be my punks from the west of the Bronx
New York, Detroit, Chicago, Los Angeles, every fking person
And personally I don't care
