

Undun, Casus

Silence settles in around the chaos I have born
All around is a maelstrom of emotions
I can feel it closing in
The calm before the storm
Closer, stalking into me
Until I'm spinning out of control

The tides of fate wash in around me
I'm caught within the undertow
So far away but I can still hear the thunder
Churning from the below

Take this breath from me
And I lapse into insanity
Why can't I see
Why can't I bleed
Let go
Release resistance and just fall
Into the arms of fate

A midnite sun bathed in emotion
What I've reaped so shall I sow
Feel myself being torn asunder
As I bask, within the afterglow

Take this life from me
As I lapse into insanity
Why can't I see
Why can't I bleed
Let go
Release resistance and just fall
Into the arms of fate

I let go
Fall into the arms of fate
There is nothing left for me
Nothing left for me to do
I just hang my head
Hang my head and cry
