

Undun, Withered

Eye's closed, face down
Pull me up just to drag me down
Let this wicked hatred brood inside of me
Burning up inside I feel it blistering
I feel it blistering

There is something inside I feel it eat away at me
I try to understand the way that its affecting me
And everything that used to be has died inside of me
It takes a piece of me

Eyes closed, face down
Push me in, and watch me drown
Locked inside this empty shell that used to believe
This withered and twisted version of me
Is killing me

There is something inside I feel it eat away at me
I try to understand the way that its affecting me
And everything that used to be has slowly died inside of me
I've died inside of me

A thousand miles of nowhere lies between me and the person that I used to be
A thousand tears between the lines
A thousand fears to ease my mind
A thousand ways to get inside
And watch myself as I slowly die
I feel it
It's tearing me apart
I feel it
Break

There is something inside I feel it eat away at me
I try to understand the way the drugs affecting me
While everything I used to be has died inside of me
I've died inside of me
