

Undying, For Liberation

(into) the birth of carnage will you but watch when innocent life is born and destined to an unjustified wretched existence? i refuse to deny their path or ignore their suffering
i fight for liberation.
ashes on ashes we build their fate with bloodshed upon our hands.

cries - oh we whisper of their death in blood, of their misery to flesh a vicious price driven to nightmare while we could sleep i refuse to deny their pain or ignore their suffering

i fight for liberation

ashes on ashes we build their fate with bloodshed upon our hands.
ashes on ashes tread our path to degradation their blood upon your hands prized with gifts of dominaton.

their blood upon your hands our fall towards defilement
