

Undying, Lay This Life Down

under this bloodred sky.
i offer this tortured flesh to gods under your heavens.
my soul spent worthless
lay this life down

bring me divinity to answer crime with their lies.
bring forth the armies of grief.
rancid breath of an angel disease

feed me tears of a martyr's last cry.
my flesh to your flesh to dust as we... die

in this world bombarded by belows of madness.
i cling to the lonely chambers of my mind.
scratching the surfaces... searching for some sanity

under this bloodred sky.
i offer this tortured flesh to gods under your heavens.
my soul spent worthless
