

Unhinged, Fall

can u bring me water? splash it in my face i don't wanna fall out of your perfect grace. please wake my brain, i need to explore why mind mind's a waste, stayin awake is a chore this is not my choice you took away my voice can you see the future? 'cause you're not in mine don't try to reclaim me, this is not the time
