

Unhinged, Insignificant

you call me insignificant call me down to the lowest look at me as little speck undeserving of any respect but what about you? what makes you better than me? your opinion's not fact yer not God despite what you think insignificant
can't stand the site of your face attitude, mind full of hate so small, such a waste why don't you get off of my case? but what about me? i'm in control of my self won't sink to your level man i'm not the one who needs help
insignificant

but who's to say? which one of us holds the truth i may think you're a f**k but i don't have the right to judge, and neither do you
insignificant
so, punk, who are you to say that shit about me, who made you judge anyway?
